Undergraduate Academic Affairs is honored to host Dr. Beverly Daniel Tatum on Tuesday, February 21, 2017 from 7:00 - 8:30pm in Traves Hall at the Douglass Student Center. Dr. Tatum is a scholar, author, administrator, and expert on race in education and racial identity development. She served as the ninth president of Spelman College, the oldest historically black women's college in the United States. Her critically acclaimed book, Why Are All The Black Kids Sitting Together in the Cafeteria? And Other Conversations About Race emphasizes the urgent need for conversations about race because of racial segregation of schools and the impacts that this has on student identity development and achievement.
